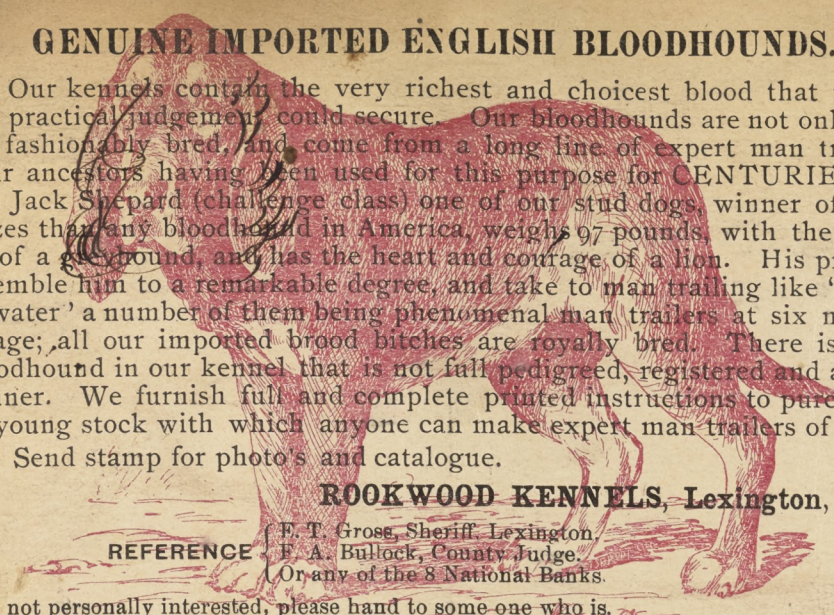
GENUINE IMPORTED ENGLISH BLOODHOUNDS.



Our kennels contain the very richest and choicest blood that money and practical judgement could secure. Our bloodhounds are not only well but fashionably bred, and come from a long line of expert man trailers, their ancestors having been used for this purpose for CENTURIES.

Jack Shepard (challenge class) one of our stud dogs, winner of more prizes than any bloodhound in America, weighs 97 pounds, with the activity of a greyhound, and has the heart and courage of a lion. His produce resemble him to a remarkable degree, and take to man trailing like "ducks to water" a number of them being phenomenal man trailers at six months of age; all our imported brood bitches are royally bred. There is not a bloodhound in our kennel that is not full pedigreed, registered and a prize winner. We furnish full and complete printed instructions to purchasers of young stock with which anyone can make expert man trailers of them.

Send stamp for photo's and catalogue.

Forged check for $12 here, and is almost sure to forge the name of some blacksmith or lumberman. As he frequents blacksmith shops looking for work, will probably be found in one.

His mode of proceedure is to go to some merchant, usually a clothier, and purchase about $3 worth of stuff, generally shirts, and tender his check drawn on some resident of the town, collect the balance and decamp. Has worked same game in San Luis Obispo and Santa Barbara. Upon receipt of this please post all the merchants of your town to look out for him and turn him over to an officer. Please attend to it at once as he went north and is liable to be in your town any day.

Arrest and wire at once. I hold warrant for forgery.

Dear Sir:-

The number of the "Ide" wheel which was stolen while in your city was 9132, stamped, I think, on the upper end of diamond cross bar just below the head. Will you kindly pass this information on to the Chief of Police of your city.

Unless the wheel is entirely dissembled, it seems to me that there should be little trouble in tracing it from the very noticable elliptical curved cranks, and I trust that every effort in the matter may be continued.

DEAR SIR: Enclosed please find the picture of George S. Cox, which you desire. The enclosed photograph is a very good likeness of Cox at the present time. I am yours very respectfully,

One Thousand Dollars Reward.

On December 11, 1894, at about seven o'clock in the evening, Edward Ott was murdered in his father's barn about a mile and a half from Wheaton, DuPage County, Illinois, by being knocked down with a club and his throat cut from ear to ear with a razor.

He was robbed of about ten dollars in money and an open faced silver watch, stem winder and stem setter; cases numbered 5855, No. 73, Elgin movement numbered 3,305,203. The ring to the watch had been broken and a piece of common fence wire bent and put in to supply the place of the ring. After murdering and robbing young Ott, they went to the house and under threats of murdering old Mrs. Ott robbed her of $68.00 in money and fled.

The murder was committed by two men, one of whom had given his name as Charles H. Smith and who is supposed to be known under the following aliases: Cigarett Charlie, Cigaretts, Red Dan, Kidney Foot and Shorty. The other man was known only as Al.

DESCRIPTION.

Charles H. Smith: Height about 5 feet 7 inches; weight about 150 pounds; age about 30 to 35; brown hair; sandy brown mustache; has a very long face and chin and rather heavy protruding lower jaw; has a small red spot on one eye-lid, it may be a scar or birth-mark—not sure which eye. He claims the spot was made by a powder burn caused from the bursting of a gun. Walks a little slew footed on account of bunions on his feet, and wears about a number 8 shoe; is very talkative; speaks English well and also speaks and reads German fluently; is quite handy at drawing pictures with a pencil and is a good writer. He claims to have served in the army some 4 or 5 months.

The man known only as Al and wanted for the same murder is from 35 to 40 years old; height about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches; weight about 135 to 145 pounds; light complected; very light brown hair and very bald headed, the fringe of hair only coming a little above the ears. Very light colored mustache; full round face; blue or grey eyes, and wears a number 5 or 5½ shoe. Is supposed to be American born, either of English or Irish descent.

The above named Al is the one who is supposed to have cut Ott's throat, as a white horn handle razor was found near the body covered with blood, and said razor has been identified as the one which was carried by Al in his side vest pocket.

The above named murderers have followed the business of swipes or rubbers at the races nearly all over the United States, and especially in California and on the Western Coast for several years. The authorities thus far have been entirely unable to obtain a photograph of either of the men. They came to the farm of Mr. Ott on December 4, 1894, total strangers and hired out to Mr. Ott to husk corn, and after working a week the murder and robbery took place on the evening of December 11, 1894, as above described.

The Supervisors of DuPage County, Illinois, offer a reward of $500.00 each for the murderers of Edward Ott, or $1,000.00 for both, payable upon the proper identification of the two men by officials and witnesses from said DuPage County. The Governor of the State of Illinois also offers an additional reward of $200.00, payable only after conviction. Address all information to

SHERIFF, Santa Clara Co.,

San Jose, Calif.

San Francisco, June 4, 1895. 189

Dear Sir:- We have for the last three years been harassed by a man by the name of Leonard Gray, hailing from Los Angeles. He is traveling through the country imposing upon women by taking their subscriptions for The Ladies' Home Journal and never reporting same to the Publishers. He was arrested some six months ago by the sheriff of San Luis Obispo, and served a sentence of three months. He has only one leg, and consequently appeals to the sympathy from the loss of the other to secure subscriptions.

The Curtis Publishing Company, of Philadelphia, are receiving complaints daily from people, being swindled by him, and I am authorized to offer a reward of Twenty-five (25) Dollars in bringing him again to justice, the result of which we hope will secure a more lengthy sentence for him. The quicker way to secure his conviction would be for the parties swindled to enter a complaint against him.

Very truly yours,

W H Daniels

Has a scar about three inches long on upper part of forehead, which is noticeable when his hat is off; also has scar on left arm and above right nipple. He is gentlemanly, polite and effeminate in manner, but acts nervous and uneasy; has a girlish voice, dresses in dark clothes, invariably wears gloves, and is noticeably particular about keeping his hands clean. Had gold open face watch, 14 karat, stemwinder, size 18, Samuel C. Tappen, Troy, N. THE SAN JOSE WITNESSES.

Sept- 28.

A Delegation From the Garden City Attracted by the Plyler Case.

The San Jose witnesses in the Plyler case arrived Tuesday evening. They formed quite a delegation when lined up, for they have been here so seldom that they felt justified in having a sort of reunion. They kept close together the entire evening, fearing that if any of them strayed away they might perhaps get lost and not be able to appear in the Superior Court. It is not often that the San Joseans have the pleasure of visiting such a gay place as is Santa Cruz. In their own city they do not have the opportunity of indulging in the pleasures which a city like Santa Cruz affords.

The San Joseans made themselves at home soon after their arrival. Wherever they went they received the glad hand of welcome, for Santa Cruz never forgets that San Jose is among her best friends. Knowing the kindly feelings existing the San Joseans took upon themselves to take the freedom of the city. They knew they could have it if they found Mayor Lamb, but as their time was limited they decided not to look for the Mayor.

Detective Anderson, one of San Jose's best officers, elected himself chairman of the delegation, with Detective Haley as Secretary and Geo. Steiger in charge of the commissary department. The other members who did their share towards making the evening pass pleasantly were Officer Campbell, C. Fuller, C. M. Hatcher and H. H. Main.

He associates entirely with Portuguese and will probably be found working at his trade on some Portuguese ranch. He frequents dance halls and houses of ill-fame.

He left San Pablo, Contra Costa county, where he was working at his trade, Dec. 11, 1897; was afterwards seen. Dec. 14, 4 miles east of Arcade, Sacramento county.

Officers are urged to give this case special attention, as his victim was a CHILD OF 12 YEARS, and the circumstances of the crime were of a most shocking character.

The above reward will be paid for the arrest and detention of Cervantes.

Arrest, hold and wire me; I hold warrant for felony; or telegraph me immediately at my expense any information of his whereabouts.
